

Proposed Special Housing Area

Te Kowhai Road and Exelby Road, Rotokauri

Hamilton Housing Accord

The Hamilton Housing Accord is an agreement between Hamilton City Council and the Government to work together to address housing issues in Hamilton. Creating Special Housing Areas is a key mechanism for the Council to deliver on its commitments for increased housing supply and affordability in the Housing Accord. These are areas of land in the city (including sites not currently zoned for residential) that can be put forward for housing development by landowners or developers for consideration by the Council.

The proposal

Hamilton City Council has been approached by Green Seed Consultants Ltd who proposes that the site between Te Kowhai Road and Exelby Road in the northeast corner of Hamilton be considered as a Special Housing Area.

The proposed development is proposed to yield between 800 and 1000 dwellings.

Considerations

Zoning

The site is currently zoned for future urban and is surrounded by rural activity.

Infrastructure

An initial assessment of the effects of the development on the existing infrastructure in the area has been undertaken, including transportation, water supply, wastewater and stormwater. These would be subject to more in-depth consideration prior to the development proceeding and, if the development were to proceed, during the subsequent consenting phase.

Height

The indicative concept development consists of dwellings up to two-storeys.

Options

The options for the Council are to agree to the request from the developer and recommend this development as a Special Housing Area to the Minister of Housing and Urban Development or to decline the request. Community views will help inform this decision.
